Using "Filtered" or instrument grade canned air, blow out the terminus end face.

Inspect receptacle using 10x magnification minimum, making sure all loose debris have been removed.

Fiber Optical Receptacle Clean?

Yes.

No further cleaning required.

No.

Using a clean syringe filled with 99% Pure Isopropyl Alcohol, rinse out the receptacle.

Note: Pay careful attention not to fully insert the syringe tip and risk scratching or damaging the optical Lens.

Using "Filtered" or instrument grade canned air, immediately blow out the receptacle.

Inspect receptacle using 10x magnification minimum making sure all loose debris and potential alcohol film residue has been removed.

Fiber Optical Receptacle Clean?

Yes.

No further cleaning required.

No.

Repeat.